IGLTA India Symposium

The Keshav Suri Foundation and IGLTA co-hosted the second Travel Symposium on February 1st. It was a captivating event with enriching discussions, covering topics from LGBTQIA+ terminology to legal considerations and event significance. Following a lively fireside chat with Mr. Keshav Suri, attendees enjoyed a musical evening with Rani Ko-He-Nur's captivating performance!

Eye Camp with Amity University Gurugram: Vision for Inclusion

Together, the Keshav Suri Foundation and Amity University Gurugram's Department of Optometry and Vision Science conducted an Eye Check-Up Camp on 10th February, tailored specifically for transgender individuals. This initiative was aimed at providing essential eye care services and raising awareness about the healthcare needs of transgender individuals! By ensuring access quality healthcare for all, we are fostering an inclusive world for all because everyone deserves to see the world clearly!

Harmony Hub

Bringing together voices for harmony and inclusivity, the Keshav Suri Foundation and the YANA Foundation, led by Sushant Divgikr, also known as Rani Ko-He-Nur, collaborated to establish the 'Harmony Hub.' This event, hosted on 24th February, fostered a sense of community and nurtured well-being in an inclusive environment. People from various backgrounds came together to share their experiences, making it a truly inclusive gathering at The LaLiT Mumbai.

Violet Chachki India Tour

Violet Chachki, an international Drag Queen and the winner of RuPaul's Drag Race Season 7 was hosted in India by KSF and The Lalit Suri Hospitality Group! It was, as expected, a beautifully magical affair as Violet performed with our resident Drag artists at The LaLiT Mumbai and The LaLiT New Delhi on the 23rd and 25th of February respectively. Glamour, sass, and celebration of queer identities filled the air as the stages were set on fire by the magnificent performances of the artists!

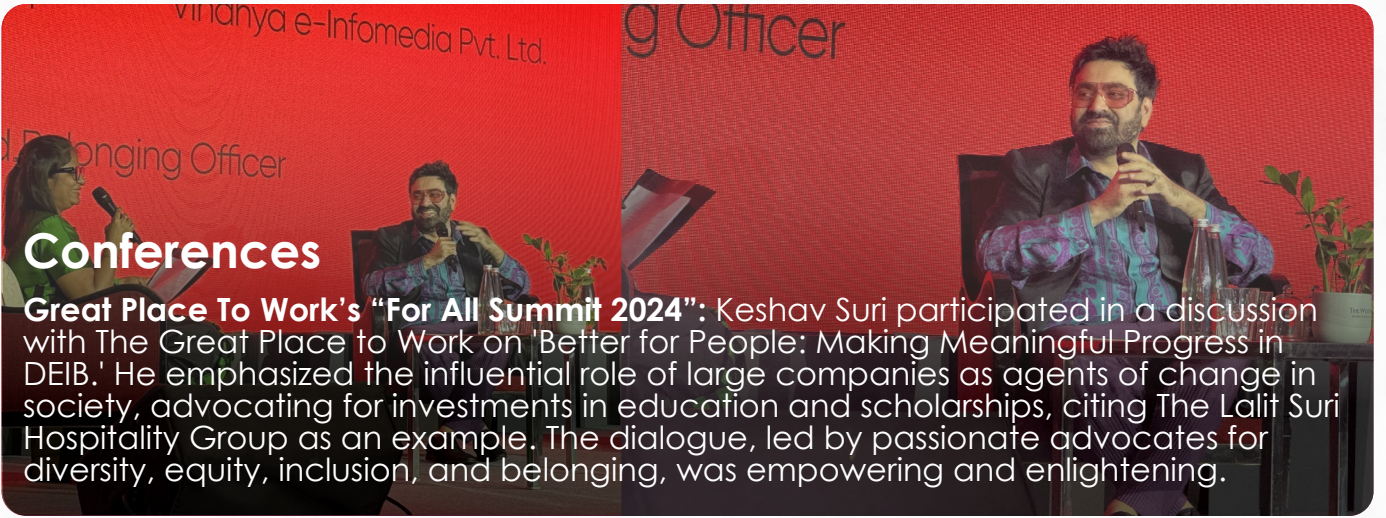

Mumbai Pride

Amidst the colorful streets of Mumbai, Team Keshav Suri Foundation and The Lalit Mumbai walked shoulder to shoulder, hearts beating in sync, to honor and uplift the LGBTQIA+ community in India at Mumbai Queer Pride 2024 on 3rd February! With each step, we echoed the voices of resilience and courage, amplifying the call for equality, acceptance, and love.

Media

Mr. Keshav Suri in Attitude Magazine's list of LGBTQ+ Trailblazers: Mr. Keshav Suri, founder of KSF, was featured in Attitude Magazine's list of LGBTQ+ Trailblazers in the Travel category!

Conferences

Great Place To Work's "For All Summit 2024": Keshav Suri participated in a discussion with The Great Place to Work on 'Better for People: Making Meaningful Progress in DEIB.' He emphasized the influential role of large companies as agents of change in society, advocating for investments in education and scholarships, citing The Lalit Suri Hospitality Group as an example. The dialogue, led by passionate advocates for diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging, was empowering and enlightening.

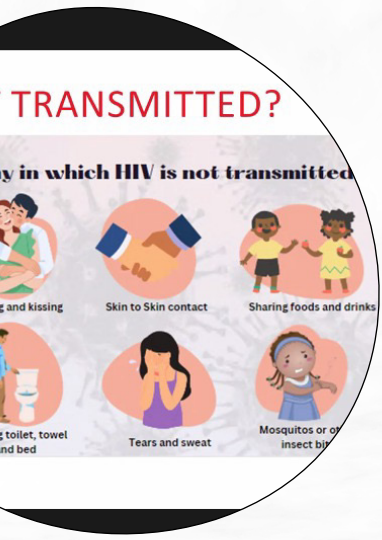

Queering The Pitch

QMH 2024 Sessions: KSF brought Queering Mental Health to several cities across India! Hosting sessions in cities including Raipur, Kolhapur, Pune, Nashik, and Nagpur, we were proud to do our bit in normalizing conversations around mental health.

Miscellaneous

Hosting Samuel and Meenu ji: We celebrated an inclusive and unconventional love story on Valentine's Day with Samuel ji and Meenu ji, a couple with Cerebral Palsy, who shared their story with us! It was an emotional and wholesome moment for us as the couple discussed love and other things!

HIV is Not a Crime Awareness Day: Our mental health counselor, Pranab Barui, conducted a session on HIV Awareness to observe "HIV is Not a Crime Awareness Day" on 28th February, where he discussed the history of HIV, symptoms, myths about HIV, HIV AIDS Act, 2017 and Rights of People Living with HIV, and some facts and current statistics.
