Launch of a six-month Hospitality Foundation Course

We are proud to announce the launch of a six-month Hospitality Foundation Course, a collaboration between The Lalit Suri Hospitality Group, Keshav Suri Foundation, and Sofia Educational & Welfare Society. Inaugurated in Mustafabad, New Delhi, the program has enrolled 35 individuals from marginalized communities, including survivors of domestic violence and persons with disabilities. Funded by KSF and hosted at Sofia's center, participants will receive hands-on training every fortnight from trainers and experts from The Lalit, equipping them with essential hospitality skills.

Rainbow Mountain Festival

The Rainbow Mountain Festival is a vibrant three-day celebration of the queer community, held from October 24th to 27th at Albela House, Dharamshala. It brings together LGBTQIA+ individuals and allies for an immersive experience focused on community, education, empowerment, and well-being. The festival features informative sessions, mindfulness activities, games, creative workshops, and cultural performances, creating a rich tapestry of belonging and artistic expression. Major collaborators include the New Delhi LGBTQIA+ Centre, Albela House, and Out and About. The event fosters connections, celebrates diversity, and highlights the strength of the queer community.
