

KONNECTION

Supporting Sheetal Devi, World Number 1 Para-Archer

KSF and The LaLIT hosted the first press conference for Ms. Sheetal Devi, the child prodigy in the field of para-sports! The discussion focused on Sheetal Devi and her journey from wanting to become a teacher to becoming the World Number 1 para-archer. After the press meet, Sheetal Devi interacted with the team members from The LaLIT where she gave out the message of hope, determination, and resilience.

Talking Disability Inclusion at Godrej!

Akshay Tyagi, the DE&I Head at The Lalit Group and Founding member of KSF, was invited by Godrej Mumbai for a conversation on disability inclusion at the workplace wherein he gave out insights from the perspective of the Hospitality industry. He shared the team's experience working with diverse disabilities and how diversity enriches a workplace.

Rainbow Literature Festival

The Rainbow Literature Festival buzzed with excitement as attendees immersed themselves in fun and interesting sessions. From captivating talks by Seema Anand and Kalki Koechlin to engaging literary discussions, there was something for every literary enthusiast. Amidst the sea of colorful decor and vibrant people, merchandise and accessory stalls added to the charm of the fest.

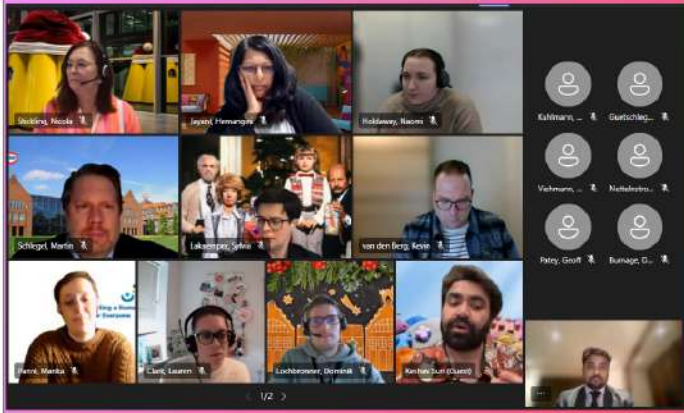

Diversity and Inclusion Workshop with Axis Bank

KSF, The LaLIT, and Axis Bank came together to host a Diversity and Inclusion Workshop at The LaLIT Ashok Bangalore on 10th and 11th December! There were two separate sessions, for parents, queer individuals, ERGs and allies, and the other for Corporate groups, that catering to both the groups through relevant content. They were interesting and engaging sessions, hosted by Harish Iyer.

Miss Trans NE Beauty Pageant and Conclave

KSF was a proud sponsor for the Miss Trans NE Beauty Pageant and Conclave, held in Guwahati, Assam. The pageant celebrated Transwomen of India and their indomitable spirits! The whole team of KSF and The Lalit were delighted when Victoria Taying from our team emerged as the 1st Runner-Up of the pageant!

Mr. Suri at Dr. Oetker

Mr. Keshav Suri shared insights on diversity and equity with the Oetker team, highlighting personal and organizational journeys towards a more inclusive future.

Kolkata Pride Parade

The Rainbow Literature Festival buzzed with excitement as attendees immersed themselves in fun and interesting sessions. From captivating talks by Seema Anand and Kalki Koechlin to engaging literary discussions, there was something for every literary enthusiast. Amidst the sea of colorful decor and vibrant people, merchandise and accessory stalls added to the charm of the fest.

Inclusive celebration with Step By Step School

On December 18th, Step By Step School celebrated inclusion with Keshav Suri Foundation team, fostering unity through song and dance, and honoring Special Olympics Bharat champions.

Visit to the Sheroes Cafe, Noida

Keshav Suri Foundation and Project Prahari team visited the incredible Sheroes Café, run by acid attack warriors; their strength and smiles were truly exceptional and beautiful. We also received some handmade goodies crafted by the warriors. It was an enriching and unique experience listening to their stories and seeing their resilience and will power!

Scan here to learn more about us

@keshavsurifoundation

@KeshavSuriFoundation

@KSF_IN

@KeshavSuriFoundation

info@keshavsuri.foundation

@KSF_in

www.keshavsuri.foundation